IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

NOTICE OF MOTION NO.2557 OF 2004
IN
L.A. REF. NO.6 OF 1991

Special Land Acquisition Officer (4)

And

Milan Bhupendra Dalal ....Claimant

Mr.D.V. Merchant i/b Arvind Rathod for the Claimant.

Mrs.Geeta Shastri, A.G.P. for S.L.A.O.

Mr.S.R. Rajguru for the Acquiring Body.

CORAM : S.J. VAZIFDAR, J.
DATED : 11TH OCTOBER, 2004.

P.C. :

1. In view of the judgment in Rajmani v. Collector, Raipur, (1996) 5 Supreme Court Cases, 701, the application is maintainable.

2. The Application for restoration was made within few minutes of the ex-parte order passed by me. However, as the other parties did not consent to the restoration, the claimants were required to take out the above Notice of Motion. The facts stated in the affidavit in support justifies restoration of the above land acquisition reference.

3. In the circumstances, the Notice of Motion is made absolute in terms of prayer (a).

. The Notice of Motion is accordingly disposed of.

. Parties to act on an ordinary copy of this order duly authenticated by the Chamber Registrar/Court Stenographer of this Court.
